

13th Annual Airway Meadows Benefit Golf Tournament

2017 Recipient: Adirondack Samaritan Counseling Center For The Helping Hand Fund

The Adirondack Samaritan Counseling Center is a not for profit counseling center that has served the tri-county area since 1983. The Center provides professional psychotherapy, counseling and educational services to facilitate emotional and spiritual health for families and individuals of varied means, including veterans and their families. They believe in a holistic approach to wellbeing – addressing clients' needs in areas that include mind, body, spirit and community health. An important part of our mission is to provide our services to people of varied means. While most therapy is fee for service and covered by health insurance, many area families are either uninsured or underinsured. We strive to offer such clients access to our services through our Helping Hand Fund, whereby we set an adjusted fee for services. The Helping Hand Fund is supported by the Tri County United Way, community and individual support to offset the cost of providing services to clients in their time of need.
